

LIVING ARCHAEOLOGY WEEKEND

Saturday, Sept. 22nd from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.
At Gladie Learning Center
in the Red River Gorge

Open to the General Public

Native American & Pioneer Technology Demonstrations

- Atlatl/Spear Throwing
- Baskets & Weaving
- Flint Knapping
- Medicinal Plants
- Native Pottery
- Stone Axe/Celt
- Hide Tanning
- Blacksmithing
- Corn Milling
- Spinning
- Cattail Mats
- Blow Darts

Friday (Sept. 21st) programs are for 5th grade school groups by reservation only. To make reservations, call Tressa Brown at 502-564-7005 at ext. 125.

Sponsored by the USDA Forest Service, Kentucky Organization of Professional Archaeologists and Kentucky Archaeological Survey

USDA is an equal opportunity employer and provider.